

Meeting Room Policy

Approved by the Board of Trustees on July 15, 2021.

The Franklin-Springboro Public Library (FSPL) meeting rooms are available free of charge during operating hours to local non-profit, civic, cultural, and educational groups. The meeting rooms are a community resource, but the FSPL does not endorse the purposes and policies of organizations using the meeting rooms.

FSPL programs take precedence over other meeting room activities. Approval of meeting room requests is made with regard to the operational needs of the whole library, including available parking, staffing levels, and time constraints. The FSPL reserves the right to review all applications and may demand sufficient time to make proper investigation before granting approval.

Library meeting rooms may NOT be used for:

- Political campaigning or signing of petitions (organizational meetings are allowed).
- Fundraising purposes or monetary gain.
- Promotion or sale of services (internal staff meetings are allowed).
- Conducting classes for profit.
- Private social events.

Guidelines – Violation of these guidelines will revoke all future meeting room privileges.

1. All meetings must be open to the public and news media.
2. Representatives must be 21 or older and in good standing according to the FSPL Patron Behavior Policy.
3. Requests must be submitted in advance. Approval with date and time confirmation or denial of use sent via email. Reservations are NOT confirmed until written approval has been received.
4. Technology must be checked out on the representative's library card and returned upon leaving.
5. The representative is responsible for the group and any loss or damage to FSPL technology or property.
6. No registration requirement, admission fee, attendance charge, or donation requests allowed.
7. Food and non-alcoholic beverages are permitted.
8. Rooms must be clean and left in their original condition. If professional cleaning is required, charges will be passed on to the representative.
9. No illegal activity or activity prohibited by library policy may be conducted.
10. No open flames, chemical usage, or any other activity deemed dangerous by the library.
11. Meeting attendance cannot exceed the maximum occupancy for the room.
12. Children must be supervised by an adult at all times.
13. The FSPL's name, address, or phone number may not be used as the headquarters of an organization.
14. Organizations are responsible for their own meeting room set-up.
15. No storage space or receiving of group's materials provided. Items left will be discarded.
16. Reservations limited to twice a month and only three months in advance.
17. Requests considered on a first come, first served basis.
18. The FSPL reserves the right to re-assign a meeting room based on the size of the group.
19. The FSPL reserves the right to cancel reservations without notice in cases of weather closings or any unsafe building conditions.
20. Notify FSPL as soon as possible regarding cancellations of meeting room usage.
21. The FSPL is not liable for injuries to people or damage to property for anyone in the meeting rooms.

Study Room Policy

FSPL study rooms are to be used on a first come, first served basis for individual or small group work or study and are to be used in accordance with the FSPL's Meeting Room Policy and Guidelines.

Solarium Policy

The Solarium may be reserved or used on a first come, first served basis. A completed Meeting Room Request Form is required, but a representative may reserve the Solarium with a library card, driver's license, or a state issued identification card. All usage must be in accordance with the FSPL's Meeting Room Policy and Guidelines.
